Hive Pass

The Hive Pass is a discounted UTA transit pass available to all Salt Lake City residents with the goal of making transit more affordable and accessible. Your home address must be within Salt Lake City boundaries to be eligible for a Hive Pass.

The pass costs $42.00 per month, a 75% discount from a regular monthly UTA pass. You may pre-purchase for an entire year for $475. That's an additional $29 discount!

You can use the Hive Pass on UTA local bus service, TRAX, the S-Line streetcar, UTA On Demand, and FrontRunner. Hive Passes also include a free one-year GREENbike membership!

Hours: Monday-Friday, 8:30am-4:30pm

On Demand Service in Certain Zone

In 2022, Utah Transit introduced an app-based service that will pick people up close to home and drop them off close to their destination by combining a few riders into a single van. The trip must begin and end within a designated zone. Currently these zones are:

1. South Valley (Herriman, Daybreak, South Jordan, Riverton, Bluffdale and Draper)
2. Salt Lake City Westside (Rose Park, Fairpark, Poplar Grove and Glendale)
3. Tooele County (Grantsville, Stansbury Park, Erda and Tooele City)
4. South Davis County (Centerville South to the County Line)
5. West Provo/Orem (north from Lakeview Parkway, on the west of Provo, to the south side of University Parkway directly across from Utah Valley University, with service to 3 points outside the zone proper, Utah Valley Hospital, Orem Central Station and the Provo Rec Center).

People who can't use the app can also call to schedule rides.

In Tooele County, call 435-843-4114

Phone: 385-217-8191

Ride United

Ride United offers free Lyft rides to help access work, healthcare, healthy food, benefits, etc. Immediate transportation may be available, but advanced notice is preferred.
